Adriatic Sea Voyage
Croatia & Montenegro
Aboard the Running on Waves

May 25–June 2, 2018

Anthony Kronman
Sterling Professor of Law, Yale Law School
Dear Yale Traveler

Join Yale Educational Travel on a late-spring voyage on the Adriatic Sea to Croatia and Montenegro, May 25–June 2, 2018. Visit Dubrovnik, the beautiful islands and ports of Korcula, Hvar, Trogir, and Split in Croatia, and the stunning Bay of Kotor and Kotor Town in Montenegro. Home will be the 18-cabin sailing yacht Running on Waves, the perfect size to navigate both the island-studded coastline as well as the open waters of the Adriatic Sea.

To introduce myself, my name is Tony Kronman and I, along with my wife, Nancy Greenberg, will be joining you on Running on Waves for this fascinating cruise along the Dalmatian coast. I’m particularly excited about this cruise because, although Nancy and I have spent a great deal of time in the Mediterranean and have explored nearly every corner of it, from Gibraltar to the Levant, we have never visited the Dalmatian region before. It will be a first for us too! I’m especially looking forward to seeing historic Dubrovnik and the remains of the palace of the Roman Emperor Diocletian, with lots of wine and good food in between. This is a storied land, washed over by civilizations ancient and modern. I’m eager to see it with you and to share our impressions together.

Our yacht, Running on Waves, comfortably accommodates only 34 guests, so space is sure to go fast! To reserve your spot, mail or fax the completed reservation form in this brochure to Yale Educational Travel, or make a secure reservation online at yaleedtravel.org/adriatic18. If you have questions, please call (203) 432-1952 or email edtravel@yale.edu.

Sincerely,
Tony Kronman
Sterling Professor of Law

Highlights

Marvel at the stunning beauty of the Bay of Kotor, entranceway to the walled town of Kotor and part of the Natural and Culturo-Historical Region of Kotor, a World Heritage site.

Stroll through the charming central square of the Croatian island of Hvar, surrounded by Renaissance-era architectural gems and a picturesque waterfront promenade.

Visit World Heritage-listed Dubrovnik, a centuries-old maritime center with a wealth of beautiful Gothic, Renaissance, and Baroque churches, monasteries, palaces, and fountains.
Anthony Kronman

Tony Kronman is Sterling Professor of Law at Yale Law School. He was appointed to this position in 2004. Professor Kronman served as dean of the Yale Law School from 1994 to 2004. He joined the Yale faculty in 1978 after teaching for two years at the University of Chicago School of Law and for one year at the University of Minnesota Law School. His teaching areas include contracts, legal philosophy, and law and religion. He also teaches philosophy, literature and history, and politics in the Directed Studies Program in Yale College.

Professor Kronman is the author or co-author of five books and many articles on various scholarly subjects. Education's End: Why Our Colleges and Universities Have Given Up on the Meaning of Life was published by Yale University Press in 2007. His most recent book, Confessions of a Born Again Pagan, was published by Yale in 2016.

Professor Kronman was born in Los Angeles and attended Williams College in 1963, graduating in 1968 with highest honors in political science. Following college, he studied philosophy at Yale and received his PhD in that field in 1972. During his four years as a graduate student, Professor Kronman was a Danforth Fellow. In 1972, he began the study of law at the Yale Law School and received his JD in 1975. While at the Law School, he served as a senior editor of the Yale Law Journal.

Professor Kronman is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the Council on Foreign Relations. In June 2004, he was named Commander of the French National Order of Merit. He has served on the board of various nonprofit organizations including the Foote School in New Haven, Yale University Press, the Slifka Center for Jewish Life at Yale, and the American College of Greece. From 2002 to 2006, he served as a director of Adelphia Communications Corporation, and was the lead director of the company for three of these years. He has been of counsel to the law firm of Boies, Schiller & Flexner since June 2008. He is married to Nancy Greenberg and has four children, all graduates of Yale College.

MAY 25–JUNE 2, 2018

WELCOME PHONE CALL
Wednesday, May 8 (tentative)
Join the group at 4:00 p.m. EDT for a pre-trip welcome call with Yale Professor Anthony Kronman in order to learn more about what to expect and to ask questions.

HOME / DUBROVNIK, CROATIA (EMBARK)
Friday–Saturday, May 25 & 26
Depart home on an overnight flight to Dubrovnik. Upon arrival, transfer to the ship in Dubrovnik’s Old Town Harbor and relax before the captain’s welcome reception and dinner.

DUBROVNIK
Sunday, May 27
This morning explore the sites along the city’s main street, the marble-clad Stradun, including Onofrio’s Fountain, St. Blaise’s Church, the Rector’s Palace, and the Franciscan Church and Monastery, a large complex belonging to the Order of the Friars Minor and consisting of a monastery, church, library, and pharmacy, the latter of which dates from A.D. 1317. The afternoon is free for independent exploration.

HVAR
Monday, May 28
Cruise to the island of Hvar, known for its fields of fragrant lavender and beautiful walled city. Stroll along the elegant main square, with views of St. Stephen’s Cathedral, distinguished by its tall, rectangular bell tower, and the 15th-century Franciscan Monastery, whose refectory contains a 1524 edition of Ptolemy’s Atlas. This afternoon cruise to the picturesque Kornati Archipelago, a dense string of karst-limestone islands that arose from marine sediment in the distant past.

TROGIR
Tuesday, May 29
After cruising along the beautiful Dalmatian coast, arrive in Trogir, enclosed by medieval walls on a small island. Enjoy a walking tour of the city’s UNESCO World Heritage palaces, churches, and ramparts, including the 13th-century Cathedral of St. Lawrence, which houses the Renaissance Chapel of St. John. Climb the cathedral tower for panoramic views of Trogir. This evening, enjoy a musical performance by Croatian folk singers.

Diocletian’s Palace, built at the turn of the 4th century A.D., is the world’s most complete remains of a Roman palace.

SPLIT
Wednesday, May 30
Cruise to nearby Split this morning. Explore the remarkable Roman ruins of Diocletian’s Palace, which dominates the waterfront of Croatia’s second-largest city. Continue to the Mestrovic Gallery, housed in the former home of Croatia’s best-loved artist and sculptor, Ivan Mestrovic. Running on Waves (B,L,D)

KORCULA
Thursday, May 31
Korcula is the sixth-largest island in the Adriatic Sea, rich in vineyards and olive groves, picturesque villages and a glorious old town, and age-old religious ceremonies, folk music, and dance traditions. Sample some of Croatia’s famous wines, including the white wine made from pošip grapes that grow primarily on Korcula, as well as local specialties. Depart for Kotor, a World Heritage site that is part of the larger Natural and Culturo-Historical Region of Kotor, this afternoon. Running on Waves (B,L,D)

KOTOR, MONTENEGRO
Friday, June 1
The Running on Waves enters Montenegro’s dramatic fjord-like Bay of Kotor through its triple bays, which are surrounded by the majestic Dinaric Mountains. Upon arrival, disembark for a walking tour of the town’s historic Venetian-influenced center. Enjoy time for independent exploration of this tiny jewel-box walled city before returning to the ship and cruising once again through the breathtaking scenery of the Bay of Kotor, passing by the man-made island of Our Lady of the Rocks en route to Dubrovnik. This evening celebrate this cruise at a farewell reception and dinner. Running on Waves (B,L,R,D)

DUBROVNIK, CROATIA (DISEMBARK) / HOME
Saturday, June 2
After breakfast, disembark the ship and transfer to the airport for flights home. (B)

Running on Waves

Launched in 2011, Running on Waves combines the look of a classic threemasted sailing vessel with contemporary design and state-of-the-art facilities and equipment. She is modern, high-speed, and environmentally friendly, with a High Ocean Class rating that allows her to sail anywhere around the globe. All thirteen sails are deployed hydraulically from the deck by a four-man crew in a ballet-like sequence of steps. The vessel meets all current SOLAS (Safety of Life at Sea) requirements for navigational and safety equipment. She boasts stabilizers, a bow thruster, a hydraulic stern marina for easy access to the sea, and a sun deck with a Jacuzzi. Much of the deck area is shaded for protection from the warm summer sun. Meals are served buffet-style in the dining room, which can accommodate all guests at one seating. In the spirit of private yachting, a full open bar offers complimentary spirits, wine, beer, soft drinks, bottled water, coffee and tea every day. Each of the ship’s 18 cabins has efficient air-conditioning and heating along with private en suite facilities. The five Main Deck cabins have exterior access and relatively heavy sea doors for safety. Single, double, and triple accommodations are available.

ITINERARY CHANGES:
The itinerary presented for this tour is subject to modification and change by Yale Educational Travel and Criterion Travel (the tour operator). Every reasonable effort will be made to operate the program as planned; however, should unforeseen world events and conditions require the itinerary to be altered, Yale Educational Travel and the tour operator reserve the right to do so for the safety and best interest of the group. Any extra expenses incurred in this situation are the responsibility of the participant.

A NOTE ABOUT COSTS:
Tour costs are based upon current fuel prices, currency values, taxes, tariffs, and a minimum number of participants. While we will do everything possible to maintain the listed prices, they are subject to change. If there are significant changes, details and costs will be advised prior to departure.
TERMS AND CONDITIONS
RESERVATIONS, DEPOSITS, AND FINAL PAYMENT: To reserve a space on this tour, please mail a deposit of $1,000 per person payable to “CRITERION TRAVEL,” along with the completed reservation form, to: Yale Educational Travel, Association of Yale Alumni, P.O. Box 209010, New Haven, CT 06520-9010 or fax the completed form to (203) 432-0587. Deposits may be charged to a credit card. Reservations are acknowledged in order of receipt. Final payment is due January 25, 2018.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS: All cancellations must be in writing to Yale Educational Travel. Refunds, less a cancellation fee of $300 per person, are made if we are notified in writing on or before January 25, 2018. No refunds are made after that date. There are no refunds for unused meals, accommodations, or other trip features.

WHAT TO EXPECT: This is a moderately active trip for travelers who are flexible, comfortable traveling with a group, and can handle the vagaries of travel with good humor. Navigating uneven terrain at archaeological sites, walking on cobblestone pavement, and standing for up to two hours at museums or other sites are the most strenuous activities. Some locations may have stairs without handrails. Moving around on board the ship requires opening relatively heavy sea doors and climbing or descending relatively steep stairways (with sturdy handrails). Temperatures in the Adriatic at this time of year generally range from the high 60s to the low 70s F with occasional rain.

INSURANCE: Yale Educational Travel highly recommends the purchase of trip cancellation insurance. If participants purchase trip insurance, and we hope that they do, participants are free to purchase the insurance of their choice. Most travel insurance must be purchased within 7-10 days of paying a deposit in order to include certain provisions including pre-existing conditions.
